

Help! I've lost my eBook

This guide uses illustrations taken from Windows XP, so the details may be a bit different on your computer

Search your files and folders

Click on Start, then on My Computer. Then click on Search (top left).

In What do you want to search for? click on All files and folders.

Enter Mah_Jong_British_Rules, then click on Search.

If the zip file appears in Search Results click on Stop.

Search Results

If the zip file does not appear fairly soon click on Stop.

It may be that you clicked on Open, rather than Save, when you downloaded the eBook. Download it again and make sure you save it.

Download the sample eBook again and save it

If you have purchased an Activation Key, it will work on the newly downloaded eBook

Save your eBook to the Desktop

Double click on the Mah_Jong_British_Rules zip file in the Search Results window.

This will open the exe file (the eBook).
